PLAYBOOK FOR LIFE YOUTH BASKETBALL LEAGUE is an unofficial association of churches desiring to play basketball for recreation and fellowship. The league has no official, incorporated, or other status as an organization; nor has it any officers, insurance or other tangible or intangible assets. There is no assumption of liability by member churches, Metrolina Baptist Association, Playbook for Life Ministries, or the league for any accident or injury occurring during games or practice. I certify that the above information on players is correct and that no players on the team or playing on a school team.

All parents have been informed of an optional accident insurance policy that can be purchased to cover players during the current season and have indicated if they elect to participate.
